

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. E. Victor Williams are giving a small dinner party at the Country Club this evening in honor of Miss Maria Skelton Williams and her guests, Miss Coupland, of New Orleans, and Miss Diana Cummings, who are spending the Easter holidays here.

Covers will be laid for twelve, and the decorations will be carried out in spring flowers. A number of charming affairs have been planned for Miss Williams and her guests during their stay here.

Visiting Relatives Here.

Mrs. Charles Rivers, Carroll, of Nyack, N. Y., formerly Miss Dorothy Harrison, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John A. Coke, Jr., at 7 West Franklin Street.

Mrs. William H. Harrison, who has been with Mrs. Carroll in Nyack for the winter months, is also the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Coke, on West Franklin Street.

Wedding of Interest.

On the evening of March 23, in the home of Mrs. Walter G. Willis, at Lynchburg, Miss Celestine Antoinette Garcia, of New York, was married to Major Hermann C. Schmidt, of Richmond, by Rev. J. R. Schmidt, in the company of members of the family. After a Northern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt will take up their residence in Washington.

Trotter-Hughes.

One of the interesting marriages of the early spring was that of Miss Martha Scott Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hughes, of Burkeville, to James Robert Trotter, of Salisbury, N. C., which took place in Little Rock, Ark., on March 24, at 9 o'clock, while the bride was visiting her brother, James A. Hughes, horticulturist for the American Refrigerator Transit Company. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hay Watson Smith, pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, of Little Rock. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue cloth with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilacs of the valley. Her maid of honor was her youngest sister, Miss Perkins Hughes, and Wesley Trotter, brother of the groom, was best man. Refreshments were served, and soon after the bridal party left for San Antonio, Texas, and other Southern points. Mr. and Mrs. Trotter will be at home after April 15 in Salisbury, N. C.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hughes, parents of the bride; James A. Hughes and Benjamin Trotter, brothers of the groom; Mrs. Cazart and daughter, of Cabin Creek, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hughes, of Little Rock, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Divine, of Leesburg and Richmond, accompanied by their little daughter, who will sail from New York on April 24, on the steamer La Touraine, to spend the summer at her former home in France.

Returning to China. Miss Lily Underwood Woods, of Hainan-ku, China, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Russell Sampson, of Ginter Park. Miss Woods expects to sail for China on April 23.

Visiting Relatives.

Howard W. Wells, formerly of the United States Navy, now of the merchant marine, arrived in Richmond Wednesday evening to visit his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wells, who have spent the winter in England and Germany. After a short visit he will return to Norfolk.

Mr. Wells Here. John Barnes Wells, of New York, is registered at the Jefferson Hotel. Mr. Wells came here to sing at St. John's Episcopal Church last night. He took the tenor part in Sir John Stainer's "Crucifixion."

Mr. Wells frequently visits in Richmond, where he has a great many friends.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor has returned to Sweet Briar College after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Taylor, at Park Avenue.

Mrs. Dr. E. B. Claybrook and her daughter, Evelyn, of Cumberland, are on a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lightfoot at 1111 Hanover Avenue.

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS

Local Chapter Shows Interest in Present Chapter, and Dance is Planned.

Lee Chapter, United Confederate Daughters of the Confederacy, met at the Confederate Woman's Home Thursday with the president, Mrs. J. Enders Robinson presiding.

Much important business was transacted, the members were enthusiastically showing their earnestness at work.

Mrs. J. W. Wiseman was elected chairman of a committee to give a dance in the near future; the chapter will also have a rummage sale on April 19. The proceeds from both to be used for relief work.

Blanks were distributed to secure the records of United Confederate Daughters and are descendants of Confederate veterans. The same can be had by phoning Mrs. W. H. Gillis, director of this work, Room 1221-W.

SAVE HALF HOUR OF HEADACHE

Aspirinal Elixir Relieves Right Now—Tablets and Powders Must Wait to be Digested—Absolutely Safe.

The next time you have a headache go to your nearest drug store, hand clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonful in a little water. With your watch in your hand, count out two minutes and call for your money back, as per manufacturer's guarantee. If you can't feel your headache fading away within the time limit.

Doctors recommend and advise Aspirinal because it is the only action on the headache with the slightest danger to the heart. It removes the cause of illness and eases headaches by its gentle action on the blood vessels. Aspirinal corrects biliousness and constipation, thereby preventing the return of your headache next day. All druggists in- vite and expect you to try Aspirinal, so don't be bashful. Everybody is doing it. Same guarantee applies to colds, coughs and neuralgia—Adv.

CHOIRS OF RICHMOND TO HAIL THE RISEN LORD TOMORROW

Augmented by Famous Singers From Other Cities They Will Make This Year's Eastertide Jubilee in the City's 200 Churches Notable.

Easter, the oldest festival of the Christian Church, will be celebrated in joyous accord by choirs of Richmond's nearly 200 churches tomorrow, who will sing of the glory and joy of the risen Lord. Aside from the spiritual significance of the festival of Eastertide in the Christian church, the day will be celebrated in song as the promise in the awakening life of spring of life eternal in a spiritual sense. This year, more than ever before, it seems, the church choirs of Richmond, largely augmented by singers from outside of Richmond, have made the observance of Good Friday and Easter notable occasions in the religious and musical annals of the city.
